Am I Eligible for MyCAA?

Get a no-cost education

Like most government programs, MyCAA serves a very specific purpose for certain military spouses. This benefit works well for spouses who need to get professional credentials to sustain a portable career.

The My Career Advancement Account, or MyCAA, is a scholarship program sponsored by the Department of Defense. MyCAA provides up to $4,000 of financial/tuition assistance to help military spouses pursue career educational opportunities including licenses, certifications or Associate's degrees. This MyCAA scholarship grant encourages Army spouses, Navy spouses, Marine spouses, Air Force spouses and National Guard spouses to pursue education, training, licenses, certificates and degrees leading to employment in Portable Career fields.

Eligible individuals include:

- Spouses of service members on active duty.
- Successfully completed high school.
- Service member is in pay grades E-1 to E-6, W-1 to W-2 and O-1 to O-3.
- Spouse can complete coursework while sponsor is on Title 10 military orders.
- Spouses whose sponsor is in the National Guard and reserve component in these same pay grades also qualify for MyCAA
- Must maintain a 2.0 GPA.
- Scholarship is renewable for up to four (4) years.
- MyCAA will provide the spouse with a new laptop from the mfg, but technical or hardware support will not be provided. Spouses CAN keep it after training.
