Course Repetitions Legally Mandated Training

Repetition of courses for which the student has received a non-substandard grade per Section 55041 of Title 5, California Code of Regulations, the Ventura County Community College District has adopted the following policy with regard to repeating courses for which the student has earned a non-substandard grade:

Course repetition shall be permitted in cases where such repetition is necessary for a student to meet a legally mandated training requirement as a condition of continued paid or volunteer employment. Such courses may be repeated for credit, any number of times, regardless of whether or not substandard work was previously recorded, and the grade and units received each time shall be included for purposes of calculating the student's grade point average. The Ventura County Community College District reserves the right to require a student to self certify that course repetition is necessary to complete legally mandated training pursuant to this section.

AFFIDAVIT:

I, the undersigned, declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that I qualify for course repetition under the aforementioned legally mandated training criteria.
