Fall 2015 Learning Community: Globalization and Indigenous Cultures

ANTH V02 Cultural Anthropology
POLS V03 Intro to Political Science

This learning community will provide students an opportunity to:

- Explore the ethics of globalization
- Explore the wisdom of indigenous cultures
- Develop a cohort among peers
- Learn in an environment of collaboration
- Complete two courses that fulfill GE requirements

Numerous studies reveal learning communities contribute to higher retention rates and greater success among student populations, especially among freshmen populations.

To enroll in this unique learning experience, students must enroll in BOTH:

- CRN 79122 ANTH V02 Tues/Thurs 12:30-1:45 PM in MCE 226
- CRN 70724 POLS V03 Tues/Thurs 2:00-3:15 PM in MCE 226

For more information contact:
Robert Porter at rporter@vcccd.edu or
Maria Teresa (Gigi) Fiumerodo at mtfiumerodo@vcccd.edu

---

1 Both courses fulfill Social and Behavioral Science requirements on the IGETC; POLS V03 fulfills the CSU requirement for History/Constitution/American Ideals; ANTH V02 fulfills the CSU Lifelong learning requirement and the Ethnic/Women’s Studies requirement for the AA/AS degree at Ventura College.