The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the SLO Training page on the Ventura College website. The browser's address bar shows the URL: www.venturacollege.edu/college-information/student-learning-outcomes/slo-training. The page features a navigation menu with links for HOME, COLLEGE INFORMATION, APPLY AND ENROLL, DEPARTMENTS, SERVICES FOR STUDENTS, ONLINE SERVICES, ACCREDITATION, and QUICK LINKS. The main content area is titled "SLO Training" and includes a sub-header "SLO Training". Below this, there is a paragraph explaining that SLO workshops are held at least annually and that SLO Facilitators are available to assist faculty and staff. A list of resources is provided, including Annual SLO Review Instructions, SLO Newsletters (Fall 2013 and Spring 2014), and Trac Dat Instructions (Entering a Rotational Plan for Departments, Entering a Rotational Plan for Programs, Printing a Rotational Plan from Trac Dat, and Program Mapping). A section titled "SLO Training Events" lists various events such as "What are SLOs?", "SLO Training", "SLO Workshop 10-2-15", "SLO Workshop 10-2-15 Flyer", "New Faculty SLO Training Flyer August 2015", "SLO Training Flyer", "March 2015 T-D Training Flyer", "Bring your Data Day 2013", "Bring your Data Day 2014", and "Data Day Flyer 2015". A sidebar on the left contains a list of navigation options, with "SLO Training" highlighted.
