Select the section that matches your reason for visiting the Student Connect Center and answer the question in that section. If you are not sure which section to select, just ask one of the Student Connect Center workers for help.

Section A: Visited the Student Connect Center to apply for Admissions.

Now that I have submitted my application for admissions, the next step is to:

- purchase a parking permit, visit the Veteran's resource center, set up my MyVCCCD portal, and complete the online orientation.
- participate in a campus tour, see an academic counselor to complete an education plan, attend a group counseling workshop, and purchase a parking permit.
- set up my MyVCCCD portal (or reset/login for returning students), complete the online orientation, take an English and/or Math Assessment, and see an academic counselor to complete an education plan.
- pay tuition and fees, purchase a student ID card, take an English and/or Math Assessment, and complete the online orientation.

Section B: Visited the Student Connect Center to receive help in navigating through my MyVCCCD portal.
