1) Click edit course
2. See what copy you are using by looking for the word “active”

3. Copy that homepage by clicking the down arrow next to “active”
4. Choose the copy
5. Click apply
6. Click “Course Home”
Welcome to D2L Version 10.1

Welcome to your Desire 2 Learn Version 10.2 Training Course.

I hope you enjoy this learning experience and remember we are here to hear your feedback about your success and challenges as you progress through this training class. Try to remember, we are developing a learning community of online teaching faculty! To get started accessing your course content, click 'Course Resources' and then 'Content'. Alternatively, you can navigate course content through the CONTENT BROWSER widget (box) on this course home page.

Please note: Course content may not display correctly on an iPad and/or mobile device.

SECURITY WARNINGS!

If you see security warnings it is because of embedded YouTube or external sites. All sites embedded into this course are safe select appropriately. If you are not comfortable or have questions, email me and I will provide.

Also note: There have been intermittent system issues with viewing some content. D2L and the district are working to resolve these issues. So if you encounter system errors please email me immediately at Brittany@vccd.edu or using this platform.

Thanks,

Brittany

Internet Explorer 11

Global

NOTE: Microsoft’s Internet Explorer 11 is not compatible with the Desire2Learn system. If you’ve already upgraded to IE 11, you will need to use an alternate web browser (Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome, etc.) to access D2L.

Show All News Items

7. Scroll to the bottom of your homepage and now you will see a small pencil

Click there
8. click on “add widgets” in the location where you want it
(if you want to change the layout it is located here)
9. Click on Custom Widget
10. Click on “VC Online Tutoring”
11. Then click “add” at the bottom
12. Make sure you hit “Save and Close” at the bottom of the screen.
Then you will see the widget appear on your screen.