Page 2, Q7. Are the Classified Senate agendas posted and accessible in an easy to find location and in a timely manner?

2	Location of posted meeting minutes is not in an ideal place. Not enough foot traffic.	Apr 22, 2013 10:21 AM
---	---	-----------------------

Page 2, Q8. Are the Classified Senate meeting minutes readily accessible?

1	Posted in the display case in the Administration building and emailed to "All Classified Users" monthly.	Apr 23, 2013 4:35 PM
---	--	----------------------

2	Most classified staff do not visit the Classified Senate webpage. I believe most classified staff do not know they have a webpage. Website also needs to be updated with current issues.	Apr 22, 2013 10:21 AM

---	---	----------------------

Page 2, Q10. What changes are needed to improve participation and effectiveness of the Classified Senate?

1	Administration has to follow through on their commitment to classified. During Accreditation we were asked for all kinds of participation and feedback; once completed and "Accredited" I feel our issues have now been put on the back burner.	Apr 23, 2013 4:35 PM
---	---	----------------------

2	I feel people need to be motivated to attend.	Apr 22, 2013 2:02 PM
---	---	----------------------

3	Make their voices be heard and count so they feel the meetings are worthwhile attending.	Apr 22, 2013 11:31 AM
---	--	-----------------------

4	I don't participate but read the agendas. Given that we have a strong administration and union, I don't doubt the Classified Senate's benevolence, only its ability to change anything.	Apr 22, 2013 10:50 AM
---	---	-----------------------

5	Deans need to encourage their staff to attend meetings.	Apr 22, 2013 10:21 AM
