Revolution Emergency Notifications

- 1. Active Shooter/Assailant Defined- An individual actively engaged in killing or attempting to kill people in a confined and populated area. In most cases, active shooters/assailants use firearms and there is no pattern or method to their selection of victims.

RESPONSE:

Run, Hide, Fight-

A- Alert-Be aware of the early warning signs, look for entrances and exits.

L- Lockdown- Lock doors and windows, close blinds or shades, turn off lights, silence cell phones and do not huddle together.

I- Inform, call 9-1-1, stay on the line to provide updated information as to who, what, where, when, how many.

C- Counter, this is a last resort, create chaos, scream, throw distractions, take control of the limbs

E- Evacuate - best option if it is safe to do so. Leave all belongings behind, leave on foot and get off campus.

- 2. Intruder on Campus Defined- A dangerous individual in a known/unknown location on campus, but is not actively engaged in harming people.

RESPONSE:

Lockdown- Enter a secure room/area, lock doors and windows, turn off lights, silence cell phones, stay quiet, and await further instruction. It is the individual judgment of the person in charge as to whether or not to let others in a secure room/area. Some things to take into consideration:

Moorpark College
7075 Campus Road
Moorpark, CA 93021
Ph: (805) 378-1455
Fx: (805) 523-8499

Oxnard College
4000 South Rose Avenue
Oxnard, CA 93033
Ph: (805) 678-5805
Fx: (805) 488-6781

Ventura College
4667 Telegraph Road
Ventura, CA 93003
Ph: (805) 289-6486
Fx: (805) 654-6386

- Can you see them?
- Subject requesting to enter is known/unknown
- Information about the description of the intruder
- Demeanor/appearance of subject requesting to come in (i.e. do they look like a student or staff member, panicked, angry, flat affect, have weapons, etc.)

3. Neighborhood Lockdown Defined- A dangerous individual or incident in the general vicinity of the college; not on campus, but close enough to potentially pose a threat.

RESPONSE:

Lockdown- See response above.

LOCKDOWN PROCEDURES

- Enter a secure room/area
- Lock doors and windows
- Turn off lights
- Silence cell phones
- Do not huddle together
- Stay quiet
- Await further instruction. DO NOT continue teaching or conducting business.
- It is the individual judgment of the person in charge as to whether or not to let others inside a secure room/area.
- If students choose to leave, they are free to do so, but advise them that it is at their own risk.

Accreditation

Ventura College is fully accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Community and Junior Colleges (ACCJC), Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC), 10 Commercial Boulevard, Suite 204, Novato, CA 94949, (415) 506-0234, an institutional accrediting body recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) and the U.S. Department of Education. Additional information about accreditation, including the filing of complaints against member institutions, can be found at www.accjc.org.

The primary purpose of the ACCJC-accredited institution is to foster student learning and student achievement. Accreditation is an ongoing review process designed to promote academic quality and to ensure that the college is fulfilling its institutional mission through assessment. Colleges evaluate their performance relative to standards established by the ACCJC. The process is intended to encourage self-reflection and improvement through ongoing, integrated planning and evaluation.

Current Accreditation Processes at Ventura College:

Ventura College is currently preparing its 2020 Midterm Report, which will be submitted to ACCJC in October 2020 (please see Timeline for additional information about this process).

The college community is invited to provide feedback on this report. Please forward your comments to the Accreditation Steering Advisory Group before March 31, 2020.
