|      | Requests highlighted in green have been approved for funding. |               |         |  |           |             |              |      | Prie |      |    |  |
|------|---|---------------|---------|--|-----------|-------------|--------------|------|------|------|----|--|
|      |   |               |         |  | Estimated | Req in Prev |              |      |      |      |    |  |
| Area | Division  | Program       | Title   | Description  | Cost      | Yrs?        | Prev Year(s) | Prog | VP   | Comm | ΕT | ET Notes                                 |
| АА   | CollegeMaster Plan  |               |         | Refresh 3-5 classrooms per year  | $150,000 |             |              |      |      |      |    | Part of theFacilitiesMaster Plan |
| AA   | Sciences  | Chemistry     |         | painting walls in four lab rooms and chemistryprep room. ($2500) Labs have not been paintedin 15+ years and are in bad shape due toconstant use. Sand and paint rusting fume hoodsto extend useful life. ($500) Replace broken/bent drawer handles ($500), add additionwhiteboards ($2000), replace locks on studentdrawers which are difficult to open ($4000), andreplace 90 rusted and dangerous lab stools  |           | No          |              | 4    | 1    | 1    | 1  |  |
|      |   |               |         | Cadaver Room ADA Compliance - The cadaverroom in the anatomy and physiology laboratory(SCI 318) fails to meet ADA accessibilityrequirements due to restrictive pathwaysaround the cadaver that prevent the passage ofwheelchairs, scooters, and even large students.We propose to increase access, particularly forthose with disabilities, by removing unnecessaryfurnishings, relocating shelving, removing of anexisting sink, installing an accessible sink in alocation out of path of travel, and installingtilting mirrors on the walls above the cadaversto provide increased viewing opportunities. Theinstallation of a new, accessible sink will requirethe movement of water and drain lines along anexisting wall as well as some |           |             |              |      |      |      |    |  |
| AA   | Sciences  | Life Sciences | BIO1801 | demolition/construction.   | $9,800   | No          |              | 1    | 6    | 2    | 2  |  |

|      | Requests highlighted in green have been approved for funding. |                          |          |   |                  |             |                                |      | Prie |       |    |          |
|------|---|--------------------------|----------|---|------------------|-------------|--------------------------------|------|------|-------|----|----------|
|      | T   |                          |          |   | Estimated        | Req in Prev |                                |      |      | Jilly |    |          |
| Area | Division  | Program                  | Title    | Description   | Cost             | Yrs?        | Prev Year(s)                   | Prog | VP   | Comm  | ET | ET Notes |
|      |   |                          |          | Install ductwork from existing HVAC unit to   |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | provide air conditioning to the Student Activities                                      |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | Office areas. Over the summer season the office   |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | gets incredibly hot to a point where employees  |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | feel sick and uncomfortable. We have installed  |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | temporary hvac units in two office spaces but   |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | the office in general (where employees work) is   |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | extremely uncomfortable for a working   |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | environment. We have to keep several fans on  |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
| SA   | Stdnt Srv   | Student Activities       | STU1801  | to blow some air and they really don't do much.   | $6,000          | Yes         | 2015-2016                      | 1    | 5    | 4     | 3  |          |
|      |   |                          |          | Independent HVAC Unit for Pirates Cove/FYE &  |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
| SA   | Stdnt Srv   | Pirate's Cove            | PIR1802  | CalWorks Offices  | $30,000         | No          |                                | 2    | 4    | 6     | 3  |          |
|      |   |                          |          | Individual HVAC Unit for FYE/Pirates Cove and   |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
| SA   | Stdnt Srv   | First Year Experience    | FYE1802  | CalWorks areas.   | $30,000         | No          |                                | 3    | 1    |       | 3  |          |
| SA   | Stdnt Srv   | Veterans Resource Center | VRC1802  | New HVAC and ducting for the VRC  | $12,000         | No          |                                | 3    |      | 15    | 3  |          |
|      |   |                          |          |   | e cost           |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          |   | $15,000 if      |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          |   | we do it in-     |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          |   | house. Most      |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          |   | of the cost is   | ;           |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          |   | in cabling,      |             | 2017-2018, 2016                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          |   | flooring,        |             | 2017, 2015-                    |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | Remodeling the building for expansion of the  | lighting, and    |             | 2016, 2014-                    |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | computer lab - Removing/ adding some walls to   | possible         |             | 2015, 2013-                    |      |      |       |    |          |
| SA   | Stdnt Srv   | Financial Aid            | FA1703   | increase the existing space to include the hallway and offices recently vacated.        | new doorsand | Yes         | 2014, 2012-2013, 2011-2012 | 4    | 3    | 12    | 4  |          |
| за   | Stunt Siv   |                          | FA1705   |   | anu              | res         | 2013, 2011-2012                | 4    | Э    | 12    | 4  |          |
|      |   |                          |          | Replace existing inadequate classroom light fixtures, with brighter LED light fixtures. |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | Classrooms 1 and 5 were completed last year   |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | and has greatly improved the classroom  |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | teaching and learning environment. There is a   |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | need to finish installing improved lighting in the                                      |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | remaining four classrooms at East Campus  |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
|      |   |                          |          | which would improve the learning environment  |                  |             |                                |      |      |       |    |          |
| АА   | Division  | Off-Campus Programs      | OFF1804  | for both faculty and students.  | $20,000         | Yes         | 2015-2016                      | 7    | 7    | 9     | 5  |          |
|      |   |                          | 011 1004 |   | +20,000          |             |                                | Ľ    | '    | 5     | 1  |          |

| Requests highlighted in green have been approved for funding. |          |                   |          |  |                   |                     |                         |      | Pric |      |    |             |
|---|----------|-------------------|----------|--|-------------------|---------------------|-------------------------|------|------|------|----|-------------|
| Area  | Division | Program           | Title    | Description  | EstimatedCost | Req in PrevYrs? | Prev Year(s)            | Prog | VP   | Comm | ET | ET Notes    |
|   |          |                   |          | Improve laboratory environment and safety by replacing flooring in labs and prep area ($40000),   |                   |                     |                         |      |      |      |    |             |
| AA  | Sciences | Chemistry         | CHE1707  | and and leaking faucets ($3000),  | $43000           | Yes                 | 2017-2018               | 1    |      | 5    | 6  |             |
|   |          |                   |          | Update aging SCI-114 and SCI-118labs/classrooms.SCI-114 and SCI-118:Paint walls and doors; replace carpet;Install "3M Projection Screen Whiteboard Film"on center whiteboard or install new largerwhiteboard with dual use capability;Install room darkening window shades.Mount 16 wall/table fixtures for LCD monitors.  |                   |                     |                         |      |      |      |    |             |
| AA  | Sciences | Physics/Astronomy | PHYS1705 | SCI-114 only:Repaint (peeling) overhead duct work.   | 17,000            | Yes                 | 2017-2018, 20162017 | 4    |      | 14   | 7  |             |
| АА  | Sciences | Geosciences       | GEO1807  | This was previously funded in 2016-2017 review,but several reasons prevented implementation.Facilities New chairs are a must for this space.The old ones are either broken or on the vergeof breaking. This leaves the room short of itseating capacity and directly impacts studentsnegatively.New white boards and a cabinet are necessaryfor this space to be fully utilized. Lastly two newcomputers need to be added to the newlypurchased cpu desks. | 6500              | Yes                 | 2016-2017               | 1    | 4    | 3    |    | In Progress |

2018-2019 Program Review Minor Facilities Requests

|      |           |                          |         | the program Review Minor Facilities Requeshighted in green have been approved for |               |             |                 |      | Priority |      |    |             |
|------|-----------|--------------------------|---------|---|---------------|-------------|-----------------|------|----------|------|----|-------------|
|      | Т         |                          |         |   | Estimated     | Reg in Prev |                 |      |          | ,    |    |             |
| Area | Division  | Program                  | Title   | Description   | Cost          | Yrs?        | Prev Year(s)    | Prog | VP       | Comm | ЕΤ | ET Notes    |
|      |           |                          |         | smart boards and whiteboards from the FRONT   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | wall of all 12 classrooms. Remove all existing  |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | wall mounted projection screens from FRONT  |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | wall in all 12 classrooms. Remove some of the   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | existing cabinets from all 12 math classrooms.  |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | Purchase and install new taller 5 foot high   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | whiteboards spanning the entire FRONT wall in   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | all 12 classrooms. This taller whiteboard   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | spanning the front room will allow instructors to                                     |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | project a 8ft x 4.5ft (16:9) video image with a 96                                    | Total cost    |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | inch diagonal which they can write on top of.   | for 36 - 8 ft |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | This size will allow students to see projected  | x 5ft         |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      | English & | Mathematics and Computer |         | material even if they sit the back of the   | whiteboards   |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
| AA   | Math      | Science                  | MAT1802 | classroom   | is $28,800.  | Yes         | 2017-2018       | 2    | 3        | 7    |    | In Progress |
|      |           |                          |         |   | $500 (as per |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | Installation of 10 mirrors for blindspots on  | Jay @ $50    |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
| AA   | Stdnt Srv | Library                  | LIB1801 | Library   | per mirror)   | No          |                 | 8    | 9        | 17   |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | There is an urgency to correct the air flow at  |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | East Campus, which can be remedied by   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | installing zoning boards and dampers to regulate                                      |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | classroom temperature. One thermostat   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | controls two classrooms, and too frequently one                                       |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | classroom is too cold and the other too hot.  |               |             | 2015-2016, 2014 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | This results in continuous faculty and student  |               |             | 2015, 2013-     |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | frustrations, and it is detrimental to the  |               |             | 2014, 2012-     |      |          |      |    |             |
| AA   | Division  | Off-Campus Programs      | OFF1803 | classroom teaching and learning environment.  | $8,000       | Yes         | 2013, 2011-2012 | 5    |          | 8    |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | Modular Anatomy Lab - We are requesting a   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | new modular building to house two anatomy   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | teaching laboratories and an ADA compliant  |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | cadaver lab (asking for ADA compliance in   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | current anatomy lab as a separate request).   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | Furthermore, our current facility does not  |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | provide adequate lab space to meet the student  |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | demand for ANAT V01 and we could increase   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
| 1    |           |                          |         | sections and generate FTES to meet the health   |               |             |                 |      |          |      |    |             |
|      |           |                          |         | care needs of our community if we had a   |               |             | 2017-2018, 2016 |      |          |      |    |             |
| AA   | Sciences  | Life Sciences            | BIO1704 | modular building.   | $350,000     | Yes         | 2017            | 5    |          | 11   |    |             |

|      | Requests highlighted in green have been approved for funding. |                                 |          |   |               |             |                 |  | Pri | ority |           |          |
|------|---|---------------------------------|----------|---|---------------|-------------|-----------------|---------|-----|-------|-----------|----------|
|      |   |                                 |          |   | Estimated     | Reg in Prev |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
| Area | Division  | Program                         | Title    | Description   | Cost          |             | Prev Year(s)    | Prog    | VP  | Comm  | ЕΤ        | ET Notes |
|      |   |                                 |          | Conceptual designs for the renovation of the        |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | following areas: AEC building, C building, three    |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   | Health, Kinesiology, Athletics, |          | west field classrooms (softball, baseball, practice |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   | Performing Arts, and Contract   |          | field) tennis courts, film studies studio,          |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
| AA   | Division  | Education                       | HEA1803  | photography classrooms and former pool area         | $20,000      | No          |                 | 2       | 5   | 13    |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | Investigate means to add additional group study     |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | rooms to the Library. We plan on doing this by      |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | hosting charrettes with the campus community        |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | regarding highest and best use of Library net       |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | assignable square footage. We are requesting        |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | funds ($50,000) as a placeholder for possible      |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | design costs associated with a redesign of library  |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | square footage that would incorporate more          |               |             | 2017-2018, 2016 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | group study space in the current library floor      |               |             | 2017, 2015-     |         |     |       |           |          |
| AA   | Stdnt Srv   | Library                         | LIB1701  | plan.   | $50,000      | Yes         | 2016, 2014-2015 | 7       |     | 16    |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          |   | per Jay @     |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          |   | $500 a piece |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          |   | just for the  |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | Replace the four keypads on the doors to the        | second        |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
| AA   | Stdnt Srv   | Library                         | LIB1802  | Library floor of the LRC with keyed doors.          | floor)        | No          |                 | 5       |     | 18    |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | Microbiology Counter Remodel -Remodel               |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | microbiology side bench to promote student          |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
| AA   | Sciences  | Life Sciences                   | BIO1802  | movement toward exits. Improve storage.             | $4,900       | No          |                 | 4       |     | 19    |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          | BEACH/Writing Center Redesign (see                  |               |             |                 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      | English &   |                                 |          | Technology and Facilities request as well):         |               |             |                 |         | _   |       |           |          |
| AA   | Math  | English                         | ENGL1804 | Electrical and construction in LRC BEACH area.      | 15,000        | No          |                 | 9       | 2   | 20    |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          |   |               |             | 2017-2018, 2016 |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          |   |               |             | 2017, 2015-     |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          |   |               |             | 2016, 2014-     |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 |          |   |               |             | 2015, 2013-     |         |     |       |           |          |
|      |   |                                 | 5.4705   | Remodeling of the entire Financial Aid Office       | About         |             | 2014, 2012-     |         |     |       |           |          |
| SA   | Stdnt Srv   | Financial Aid                   | FA1705   | area.   | \$50,000      | Yes         | 2013, 2011-2012 | 3       | 2   | 21    | $\square$ |          |
| 1    |   | Health, Kinesiology, Athletics, |          |   |               |             | 2016 2017 2017  |         |     |       |           |          |
|      | Distates  | Performing Arts, and Contract   |          | Renovation/remodel of AEC snack bar to be up        | ¢25.000       | N           | 2016-2017, 2015 |         | 7   | 22    |           |          |
| AA   | Division  | Education                       | HEA1809  | to health code for AEC event use                    | $25,000      | Yes         | 2016            | 3       | /   | 22    |           |          |

|      | Requests highlighted in green have been approved for funding. |                                 |                |  |          |             |                 |       | Pric |          |    |          |
|------|---|---------------------------------|----------------|--|----------|-------------|-----------------|-------|------|----------|----|----------|
| A    | Division  | Due euro                        | T :41 - |  |          | Req in Prev | Duary Vearla)   | Dream |      | C |    |          |
| Area | Division  | Program                         | Title          | Description                              | Cost     | Yrs?        | Prev Year(s)    | Prog  | ٧P   | Comm     | EI | ET Notes |
|      |   | Health, Kinesiology, Athletics, |                |  |          |             |                 |       |      |          |    |          |
|      |   | Performing Arts, and Contract   |                | Remodel showers in Women's and Men's     |          |             |                 |       |      |          |    | 1        |
| AA   | Division  | Education                       | HEA1811        | staff/coaches locker rooms.              | 6,000    | No          |                 | 9     | 9    | 23       |    |          |
|      | HED/Kin/Ath   |                                 |                | Ongoing upgrades to west field and other |          |             | 2017-2018, 2016 |       |      |          |    |          |
| AA   | l/PerfmArts   | Athletics/Kinesiology           | A/K1702        | competition facilities. Fencing          | $80,000 | Yes         | 2017            | 2     | 9    | 24       |    |          |