People may ask...
What you can do with an Associate degree in Arts and Humanities?
Ask Dr. Damien Peña, who graduated from VC in the Class of 1990 with this same degree, transferred to CSUN and earned a degree in Chicano Studies, Master's in Social Work and a Doctorate in Educational Leadership. Dr. Peña returned to Ventura College as the Vice President for Student Affairs and currently works with a talented team of educators to guarantee that students find their own pathway for success. Some with an Associate degree earned from Ventura College East Campus in Santa Paula.
