❖ FINALISTS / CATEGORY A

Zephany Bornfreund, a senior at San Marcos High School, has been playing violin for twelve years, four of those years with Santa Barbara Youth Symphony. Zephany is currently studying violin with Mrs. Joyce Osborn at Woodland Hills. In 2020, Zephany had the honor of winning the SBYS Concerto Competition. Last summer, Zephany also competed in the 11th Annual Henry Schwab Violin & Viola Competition as a finalist. During other summers, Zephany attended Indiana University's String Academy, Montecito International Music Festival, and the Merit Program at the Music Academy of the West.

In addition to music, Zephany participated in cross country and track teams throughout high school, and is an avid member of Riveria Robotics in Goleta. This fall, Zephany plans to study mechanical engineering and continue making music at the University of California, Berkeley.

Bryan Huang, Westlake High School class of 2024, has studied the violin for nine years under the instruction of Mrs. Shuwei Liu. Bryan has participated in Conejo Valley Youth Orchestras since 2016, where he holds a principal violin position in the Youth Orchestra and Virtuosi Ensemble. He recently won a fellowship with the California Young Artists Symphony as a distinguished young musician in the local region. In July 2021, Bryan performed the Mendelssohn Violin Concerto at the 11th annual Henry Schwab Violin and Viola competition and won third prize. He has also won a gold medal at Conejo Valley branch MTAC VOCE violin competition 2019. Bryan participates in community performances with local festivals and church events. Aside from playing the violin, Bryan is an elite swimmer on Westlake High School's varsity team and on the championship team of Class Aquatics swim club.

Skyler Lee (17) is an 11th grade student at Newbury Park High School. He was introduced to music through Conejo Valley Unified School District's elementary strings program. He is a student of Sam Fischer at the Colburn School. Skyler is concertmaster of The Conejo Valley Youth Orchestra and a member of California Young Artists Symphony. He served as a co-concert-master at California All State Junior High Orchestra. Skyler won 1st place Conejo Valley branch MTAC VOCE violin competition from 2017-2019 and 3rd place ENKOR International Music competition in 2020. He was selected as a Channel Islands Chamber Orchestra Young Artist (2020), and he won 2nd prize at the 11th annual Henry Schwab Competition (2021). In 2022, Skyler had a solo performance with Thousand Oaks Philharmonic in Opus 58 concert, and he was chosen to perform as a rising star of Ventura Music Festival.
