18. CHANCELLOR AND INFORMATION REPORTS

18.01 Chancellor's Report. Chancellor Gillespie reported that this is an exciting time in the academic year where each college is celebrating students with a number of performance, recognition events, pinning ceremonies, and commencements. Fortunately, all of these events are being held on campus and in-person this spring. All of the employees of the VCCCD and our Board of Trustees congratulate students who are receiving certificates, degrees, and other recognitions.

18.02 Board of Trustees Request for Reports. There were no items.

19. TRUSTEE REPORTS AND MEETING EVALUATION

19.01 Trustee Reports.

- Trustee Perez requested a study/focused discussion on the vaccine mandate.
- Trustee Torres requested a study/focused discussion on the vaccine mandate.
- Trustee Chancer expressed that he is eager to see student mental health needs addressed and the Ventura College East Campus growth plan. He would like some clarification of who the employees of the Foundations are. An agenda item for the OC Leadership Investigation process was requested. Congratulations were offered to graduates. He is looking forward to attending commencement ceremonies.
- Vice Chair Mantooth requested a study/focused discussion on the vaccine mandate. He is excited to see the fruits of all the labors of the students and staff that have helped guide them and looks forward to the upcoming culminations.

- Chair McKay requested a study/focused discussion on the vaccine mandate. She reported that they had the highest attendance at the statewide trustee conference she recently attended and looks forward to seeing the mental health needs of our students being addressed. Thanks to Director Blair for her work on the Participatory Governance Handbook.

20.02 Board of Trustees Meeting Evaluation.

- Trustee Bernardo Perez commented that the Board did recognize and acknowledge the efforts of the constituent groups present. Would like to have consent calendar items ahead of time to conserve on time. We did a better job of being focused on the actual agenda items in front of us. Thanks to all for providing success with the upcoming culmination next week.
- Trustee Gabriela Torres commented that the deliberation process went well. Trustees were concise and focused, took the time and followed ground rules. Everything worked well and not much area for improvement.
- Trustee Josh Chancer expressed thanks to the Chancellor, Chair and Vice Chair. The items he asked for were on the agenda. The struggle he has with the process is effectively coming together on an item. He wishes there were options for the Trustees to get behind. He would like to see a change in the Budget Allocation Model to help with mental health. Clearly the need is money; he wishes there were solution-based options.
- Vice Chair Stan Mantooth is looking forward to seeing the proposals for mental health and the VC East Campus expansion. The Board displayed patience and restraint during a disruptive component of the audience.
- Chair Dianne McKay commented that the Board made some well thought through decision-making.
- Student Trustee Bryan Rodriguez commented that the Board has made improvements and responded well to the surprises that came about. Having items placed on the agenda that were asked for is helpful. He will provide a diagram with ground rules from Cerritos College for the new Chancellor.

20.03 FUTURE BOARD ITEMS. There were no suggested future Board items. The Board Agenda Items Calendar was attached to the agenda for reference.
