DIRECTOR / FRENCH HORN

* HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT

Ventura College Jazz Band, 2022

Randel Fisher was born in Inglewood California. He picked up the clarinet at age 11 and added the Tenor sax at 13. Randel is an up and coming jazz musician who can hold his own among the legends in the business. At a very early stage he had one of the best teachers in the business, Ricky Washington. While currently playing in his own jazz ensemble, Randel also works with a lot of household names like Aloe Black , Ethio Cali, Dexter Story and many more. He has accompanied world music legends like Mahamoud Ahmed from Ethiopia and artists like Miguel Atwood Ferguson, Mark deClive Lowe, Kamasi Washington, Lukas Graham, the Pan Afrikan People's Arkestra, Meklit Hadero, to name a few. \
