

ACTIVE SHOOTER TRAINING

The Civilian Response to Active Shooter Events (CRASE) course is a lecture presentation on active shooter events in colleges and universities.

The VCCCD Police Department offers CRASE presentations to District staff members, faculty members, and student classes at Moorpark, Oxnard, and Ventura Colleges, as well as the District Administrative Center. VCCCD police officers presenting this course are certified CRASE instructors.

LEARN MORE

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- ◆ Active Attackers
- ◆ Physiological Responses to Disasters
- ◆ How to Prepare for Active Shooters
- ◆ Responding to Active Shooters
- ◆ Being Trapped Inside Buildings

To schedule a presentation for your class or department office, contact your college's station lieutenant:

MOORPARK COLLEGE

Lt. Andrew Huisenga
\(805\) 652-7763652-7763)
ahuisenga@vcccd.edu

OXNARD COLLEGE

Lt. Cesar Romero
\(805\) 678-5866678-5866)
cromero@vcccd.edu

VENTURA COLLEGE

Lt. Mike Pallotto
\(805\) 652-7754652-7754)
mpallotto@vcccd.edu

The CRASE course was designed by the Advances Law Enforcement Rapid Response Training organization and has become the national standard for civilian response to active shooter events.

VENTURA COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT
POLICE DEPARTMENT

ALERTT
TEXAS STATE UNIVERSITY